Note: This only works East Sea and does not work on battle maps. auto_wm defender's garrison will East Sea next one. Note: This only works East Sea and does not work on battle maps. All process_cq will immediately complete all pending construction in all settlements. process_rq all pending recruitments from all settlements immediately. Orphanaut create a huge elephant unit in the chosen army or settlement. toggle_low 02-22-2019, 23:3 #1 7 p.m. won 100% of the enemy is dead, about 15% of my army is dead. It crashed by the end of the game, and I can't be bothered to play it (which will probably happen again). *When I make automatic determination, I can win, but most of the enemy troops survive and escape to strategically important cities". Is there a way to win the battle by killing them all like I did the first time? Or is there a command/trick to destroy all units? *Sleep on RTW East Sea There are always two possible outcomes - win or lose. All wins and losses are always the same, so you can't save, East Sea and load save until you get the desired result. 04-22-2019, 17:26 #2 this situation in the default RTW game. I think it's because of the algorithms that AI uses to assess casualties. I've never seen any trick to annihilate an opponent, although there are those who force you to win (Fprce, clear and heroic, actually ai chooses between close). In Igsung, auto_wm attackers/defenders in the following areas: attackers or defenders automatically win the next East Sea match battle. capture_settlement name of the settlement: Capture the settlement. kill_character Character Name: Kills the selected character. So you can vote East Sea and when the force retreats into the city you can then force the capture of the city (or sleep attack in your favor East Sea sere). It should have the same effect. PS - If you're facing a tank or have a very valuable mercenary East Sea Don't. I had 500+ of my attackers wipe out two units of chariots when actually attacking the city and basically it would be a window to fire or destroy arrows. (If you are facing a chariot and do not have a intestine/archer, the best option is to align the army in the form of squares. (9X9) or 11 x 11. Chariots can't get through them on charge and then slaughtered) edited by The Last Forger; 04-22-2019 17:27. GamesRadar+ is supported by viewers. Rome: Total War Cheats and Cheat Codes will help give you an extra edge when playing single player grand campaigns and scenarios. All cheat codes are case sensitive and must be entered correctly, as shown below, but some can only be used once in a campaign. We also recommend that you update your game to the latest available patch version. To use the trick, press the tyld key (-) above the tab key on the standard QWERTY keyboard to raise the console window. Enter the cheat code displayed for the desired effect. In some places, you need to enter certain arguments, such as characters or settlement names, characteristics, seasons such as summer or winter, etc. These are shown in parentheses.
